

XM radio is a great benefit to me. Its traffic and weather channels are really valuable and provide better and more convenient information than public broadcasters. Please do not restrict XM Radio. The FCC should be encouraging this type of technology not restricting it. I pay for these value added services and limitations should not be placed on me.